

STEPPING STONE SCHOOL

Stepping Stone Special Education School in Swakopmund, Namibia, is looking for dedicated volunteers to join our team and make a positive impact in the lives of our learners. Our school is a preschool and primary school for children with autism and other learning difficulties. We currently have 44 learners enrolled, aged between 3 and 16, and we are growing steadily.

At Stepping Stone, we use a combination of specialist approaches to teaching, tailored to each child's individual abilities. We provide a safe and nurturing environment where every child is the center of attention. Our guiding philosophy is that every child we teach can reach their full potential, and we are proud to be the first registered private school in Namibia that provides specialized, tailor-made education to these children.

As a volunteer at Stepping Stone, you will work closely with our passionate staff to assist with teaching, activities, and daily routines. You will have the opportunity to develop your skills in special needs education and gain valuable hands-on experience in a diverse cultural setting.

At Stepping Stone Special Education School, we believe that learning from each other is of great value. That's why we welcome international professionals and volunteers to visit, review, train, or support our staff. If you are a student or person of interest, we encourage you to reach out to us and join our team. We are looking for individuals who are committed to helping children with special needs reach their full potential. Whether you are a passionate advocate for special education or simply interested in making a positive impact, we invite you to apply to volunteer at our school.
